MEDIA INVITATION

2018 D'Arts et de rêves program launch

Unveiling of the new website and presentation of the upcoming year's major projects

Sutton, April 19, 2018 – The D'Arts et de rêves organization, whose mission is to help make the visual, literary and modern circus arts accessible to the public at large, invites you to the official launch of its 2018 program as well as the unveiling of its new website, April 24 at 10:30 a.m., at 57 Main Street North in Sutton.

At this media event, D'Arts et de rêves' President will present the three major cultural projects planned for 2018, including the creation and installation of several sculptures and observation benches to view the park's exceptional natural environment, the completion of a significant part of Phase 2 of the park's development plan, as well as the launch by La Fabrique culturelle (on Télé-Québec) of a video profile of the first multidisciplinary residency program which began in March 2018 with three artists from different artistic disciplines.

- What: 2018 program launch for D'Arts et de rêves, cultural park and artists' residence, and unveiling of its new website
- Who: Nicole Côté, President - Sculptor
Henry Lamoureux, Vice-President – Writer and socio-ethicist
Claude Dagenais, President of Two Humans
- When: Tuesday, April 24, at 10:30 a.m.
- Where: D'Arts et de rêves, 57 Main Street North, Sutton

Please confirm your attendance to Nicole Côté (nicole@dartsetdereves.org).

Unveiling of new website

At the same time, D'Arts et de rêves will unveil its new website, designed by Two Humans as part of its Brome-Missisquoi non-profit support program. This appealing bilingual portal will feature all the information collated since 2016, current artist residency programs, park tours, public events and news, as well as the organization's social media links, newsletters and fundraising campaigns.

About D'Arts et de rêves

D'Arts et de rêves is an extraordinary cultural park that inspires visitors to walk its trails to admire a collection of monumental sculptures. The site also offers an artist residency program for artists in the visual, literary and modern circus arts, that provides them with the space and inspiration they need to create and give free rein to their expression.
